Course Description:

This course will introduce the Hindu, Buddhist and Chinese religious traditions through close readings of four primary texts: the Bhagavad-gītā, the Dhammapada, the Tao Te Ching, and the Mengzi.

Course Requirements: adequate preparation of assigned primary texts and supplementary readings, demonstrated by thoughtful contributions to class discussion and short response papers as assigned; three comprehensive, in-class quizzes based on assigned readings and class lectures; a final 5-6 page paper due the last day of class. Regular participation in classroom discussion is expected.

This course fulfills the following SAS core curriculum requirements:

Social and Historical Analysis

Understand the bases and development and human and societal endeavors across time and place.

Explain and be able to assess the relationship among assumptions, method, evidence, arguments, and theory in social and historical analysis.

Historical Analysis (HSt)

Explain the development of some aspect of a society or culture over time, including the history of ideas or history of science.

Employ historical reasoning to study human endeavors.

Grading: Grades will be based on three quizzes (60%), a final paper (20%) and classroom participation, including occasional, short response papers (20%). Students will be called upon in class to answer questions pertaining to the week's reading, as well as participate in discussion. No make-ups for missed exams will be given without valid medical proof or a signed letter from a student dean. Extra credit may be earned through in-class presentations.
