

840:112:03 DEATH AND AFTERLIFE - SPRING 2017

Mondays and Wednesdays, 3.20 – 4.40 PM

SEC-208, BUS

Description & Learning Goals

The course looks at the beliefs and practices on the topic of death and afterlife in major religious traditions of the world.

This course counts toward the following SAS Core Curriculum requirement: Arts and the Humanities [AH] o: Examine critically philosophical and other theoretical issues concerning the nature of reality, human experience, knowledge, value, and/or cultural production relevant to the course. Students will develop an understanding of how religions have shaped and been shaped by various forms of human expression, from philosophical and theological writing to ritual practices.

Instructor

Office: Loree 134, Douglass Campus

Office Hours: by appointment

Requirements

1. Class Attendance and Participation

You are expected to attend and actively participate in every class meeting. Attendance will be marked in the roster and accounts for 10% of the final grade. Every class session missed, without authoritative documentation explaining the absence provided to the instructor, will result in one (1) point reduction of your attendance grade. Please note that late arrival to and early leaving from class might lower your attendance and participation grade.

Cellphones must be turned off in class. Laptops or tablets may be used only for note-taking. Anyone who does not follow these instructions will lose points (1-2 per instance) from the attendance and participation grade and may be asked to leave for the remainder of that period.

2. Three Exams and Three Quizzes

Exam 1: Monday, February 13

Exam 2: Monday, March 27

Exam 3 (Final): Wednesday, May 10

The dates of the Quizzes are given in the Course Schedule. They will be held at the beginning of the class.

Grading

3 Exams=75%, 3 Quizzes=15%, Attendance and Participation=10%

Grading System: A=100-90, B+=89-87, B=86-80, C+=79-77, C=76-70, D=69-65, F=65 and below.

No make-ups will be given on exams and quizzes unless arrangements are made prior to the scheduled dates with documentation for the reasons for requesting make-ups.

Textbook (required reading)

H. Obayashi, ed., Death and Afterlife: Perspectives of World Religions, Praeger.

Other readings will be posted on Sakai.
